O.P. No. 2830 of 2002 J

**----------

Dated, this the 8th day of March, 2007

J U D G M E N T

The arbitration case filed by the petitioner against the 2nd respondent is held up on account of non-production of records already filed before the Labour Court. The case pending before the Labour Court, Kozhikkode is stated to be already over. In the circumstance, this original petition is disposed of directing the Labour Court to release the originals of the documents produced, if the award has become final and if it is no longer required for the purpose of any pending case, or if it is retained by the Labour Court as record of case allow petitioner to take photocopies to produce it before the 1st respondent for the purpose of arbitration. Labour Court is directed to release the documents as above within three weeks from the date of production of a copy of the judgment. 1st respondent is also directed to dispose of the arbitration case within two months from the date of production of records from the Labour Court.

This original petition is disposed of as above.
